DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY. This celebrated remedy is a compound balsamic preparation of the Wild Cherry Bark and Moss of Iceland, combined by a new chemical process with the Extract of Pine. So salutary have been its effects in all cases when administered for COUGHS, ASTHMA, CONSUMPTION, or any disease of the lungs, that many of the most distinguished physicians have approved and recommended it, and openly acknowledged it the most valuable medicine ever discovered. It is truly a valuable medicine, and is effecting an immense amount of good in the relief of suffering humanity. O'See Advertisement.

MARKETS-New ORLEANS, March 21. CORN—The sales of the past three days, includ-ing 500 sacks, at 48 cents per bushel yesterday, amounted to 8,500 sacks, and the market closed firm at this rate, with rather an upward tendency.
WHEAT--We have but one sale of any importance to notice: 1500 bushels inferior at 75c; a prime article would command $1,00 the rate at which the last sale was made of that description. OATS-The last sales were at 361 cents per

PORK--The transactions have been entirely of a retail character, and the ruling rates have been $10,62 a $10 75 for Mess, and $9 a $9,25 for Prime. At these rates about 900 bbls, have been sold in the last three days in lots of from 10 to 50 bbls., the transactions of yesterday comprising 100. M. O. continues to command $10.25; Prime 9 a 9.25, and rump at 8 a 8.50. The last intelligence from the North has been regarded as favor-able and inspired holders with increased confidence.

Bacon—During the last three days the sales have eeached 400 casks, principally of Sides, showing a sready demand, with but little variation in prices. The ruling rate for sides has been 53, though sales have been made to the extent of nearly 100 casks at 53, and a few at 6c. MESSES. EDITORS: - That Ex-Merchant of Carrollton; I wonder if his mother knows he's out. I tell you he is a monstrous knowing chap; he seems to think them are men down at Glasgow, where's building them are fine brick houses, don't get their cash in exactly the right way. Well, he ought to

And he has found out that they they sell their "Breeze," as he calls it, at 25 cents per gallon. I tell you he is a knowing sort of critter. But ain't it a wonder he has never found out that he could buy real old "Breeze," at Carroll's corner, for 22 cents. He seems to think it a great honor to be invited into one of them large spacious new brick stores and get a formal introduction to Mr. "Breeze." t be a tarnal fool about that; for every body knows "Breeze," at Carroll's corner, without at

He seems to think them are chaps, down town ought to get better profits on their goods; and so ild-if it warn't for Carroll's corner. He also objects to their made of finance; now what's it to him, what name they ship their goods in-or whether they take the benefit before or after they get to Glasgow. But there is one sum that puzzles him: If a dry hide ought to lose 15 per cent. for lorns and tails, how much ought a green man to gain, heavy loaded with Hypocrisy, on the same scales.

Upon the whole—he reminds me of a member of a certain Church, I once knew, who sometimes took up the false and erroneous opinion that the devil was getting ahead of him in some things, and the way he would pray, thus: "Oh! Lord, be pleased to chain the monster for a short spell, if it is only until I can buy as much Tobacco as want, and then you may turn him loose and be GOOD BYE.

CARROLLTON, March 28th, 1846. Messrs. BENSON & GREEN:-- I observed in the last "Times" a letter purporting to be from our town. It's a small mistake; 'tis to be hoped such fools never get higher up the country than Glas-gow. The "Ex-Merchant" need not be oneasy, no one never will suspect him for getting anders sheed as to catch an ox by the horns, but I undernever will suspect him for getting as far stand he hangs well to a little burry Bull's tail.
